Sparks will fly

The charming and picturesque Malvern Town Hall, constructed in 1886, is situated in a prime location at the junction of Glenferrie Road and High Street, just a mere 6 kilometers from the heart of Melbourne. Stepping inside, one is greeted by a magnificent port cochère that leads to immaculately polished terrazzo floors. A grand marble staircase awaits, taking you to a magnificent high roof with a beautifully painted eggshell blue coffered ceiling, that is elegantly illuminated by sparkling chandeliers. The main hall boasts a large stage, dress circle, elegant parquet floors, and a stunning balcony that overlooks the hall, adding to the building's elegant charm and character.

You've got good taste

Catering's our jam and when it comes to food, we don't mess around. It's not over-complicated or intimidating – we're the sweet spot where careful abundance and quality ingredients meets simplicity. In short, nobody's going home hungry.

Family is at the core of everything we do and our food philosophy is no exception. Our aim is for you and your guests to feel like you've been welcomed into our home – experiencing the best in beautifully simple flavours and presented in a way that helps you connect with the people around you. Every important moment should always be around a table full of incredible food – with all the colours, textures and tastes you'd expect from your favourite home-cooked meal.

Got a specific style in mind? Allow us to create custom menus to suit your event needs. Try us, we don't bite.

FAQs

What is your venue hire and per head cost?

As for what that price is, that depends on a lot of factors because we're not a 'cookie cutter' kind of company. We tailor our prices depending on your wedding date, your chosen package and how many guests you're having. Our event executives can help you with a quote for the wedding day that you are after, so please get in touch!

Will the minimum spend increase?

No, once the minimum spend has been confirmed in writing on your booking agreement it will not vary.

What is a minimum spend? What is it made up of?

A minimum spend is an overall amount that is agreed upon by both the venue and the client at a time of booking. It can be one figure, or it can be a minimum guest number amount instead. Either way, this amount can be made up of food, beverage or time in the venue. For example, if your booking agreement says your minimum guest number is 100, but closer to the day you realise it's going to be more like 80, the difference can be made up by upgrading your wine package, or adding in a cool food station for your guests so that you still get something for your money rather than us just charging a fee.

When is my next payment due after paying the deposit?

The 1st progress payment is due 6 months prior to your event date. The 2nd progress payment is due 3 months prior. Your final payment of the remaining balance is due no later than 7 days prior to the event date. Which means you get to relax in that final week and focus on more important.

What is the next stage after paying my deposit?

A deep breath and a glass of bubbles... because you're officially getting married! But after that, you can expect an introduction email from our events coordinator to introduce themselves, and also so you know who to contact moving forward. Then we give you a rest until around 10 months before your wedding where you will receive a planning checklist to help you get started. Within that checklist is a timeline so you'll know what to expect from then on.

Can I make a tentative booking?

We understand that making a decision on your preferred venue can take a little time and you may often need to consult your friends and family. So, we offer our potential clients a tentative booking for 3 days. This essentially places your name on the date, but is not a booking. Once the 3 days has expired, we will contact you to confirm your decision, or to have your name removed from the date. Our venue is very popular, so, unfortunately, we can't hold a date any longer than 3 days, as we often have a waiting list.

How do I confirm my booking?

Just ring or email us and say "yes!" Then we will create a booking agreement and a deposit invoice for you. Once the signed booking agreement has been returned to us and the deposit invoice has been paid, your booking is confirmed.

When do I have to give final numbers?

In order to make sure we order the correct amount of food, beverage and staff for your wedding, we do require that you inform us of your final guest (and supplier) numbers, including any allergies, no later than 7 working days prior to the event date.

FAQs (cont.)

What happens if I need to cancel my event?

We understand that at times unexpected things happen and events may need to be cancelled.

Please read through our terms and conditions for all relevant information.

Are you an accessible venue?

Yes. In accordance with the Discrimination Act 1992, we offer accessible rest rooms, ramps, accessible parking and wide doors.

When do I have access to the venue on the day of my booking?

You (and/or your suppliers) will have access to the venue 2 hours prior to the commencement of your event and a one hour bump out. Should you require an extended bump in or bump out to allow for additional supplier set up or pack down requirements please speak to your event coordinator to obtain information on additional charges.

What is your responsible service of alcohol policy?

All MEG staff are trained in the Responsible Serving of Alcohol, and by law may refuse to serve alcohol to any person/s who seems to be intoxicated. Melbourne Event Group prohibits any minors under the age of 18 years to be served or given any alcoholic beverages at any time regardless of who they are with.

Does MEG cater for specific food allergies?

Yes, absolutely! We aim to provide suitable options for all our guests. We do, however, need adequate time to accommodate special requests and, therefore, all allergies must be confirmed alongside your final guest numbers 7 days before your wedding. A good way to ensure you get this information from your guests on time is to include a line in your invite which says: "Please RSVP with any allergies by this date."
